Elva T. had a sweet, lovable disposition, as was attested by the many kind words said and written about her. The Rector of her church, Rev. William P. Lewis, D. D., wrote: "Elva was of a pure and gentle spirit, and that spirit was, I doubt not, refined and made meet for a better world by the refiner's fire, and by all the suffering—great for one so young—which she has undergone."

The following beautiful lines were written by William L. Whitney, Esq., a friend of the family:

ELVA.

"As oft as the loveliest flowers of spring,
Unfolding beauties to the eye,
Are nipp'd by unexpected frosts,
And droop, and fade, and quickly die;

So she, fair girl, in life's gay spring,
 When youthful hope was in its bloom,
 Touched by the chilling hand of death,
 Has sunk into an early tomb.

"Oh, 'tis a sad and solemn hour,
 In which the young and lovely die;
 When sorrowing hearts their tribute pay—
 Affection's tear and friendship's sigh—
 Yes, she was young and lovely, too,
 Hers was a heart of rarest mould;
 Her voice was gentle music—now
 Her voice is hush'd, her heart is cold.

"Maidens of pure and spotless soul,
 Plant o'er her grave the snow-white rose;
 And water oft with generous tears
 That fairest, loveliest flower that blows.
 But be not hopeless—as ye weep,
 Oh, let your thoughts to heaven arise,
 The spirit which has left the earth,
 Will live forever in the skies."

APPENDIX.

RECORD OF DAVID MOORE AND HIS DESCENDANTS
AS FAR AS KNOWN. (DAVID WAS A BROTHER
OF (1) ANDREW MOORE.)

First Generation.

David Moore and wife, "late of Iraland," produced a certificate at Concord M. M., 11-7-1722, from a select meeting held at Ballynacree, in the county of Antrim.

8-3-1726, they requested a certificate to New Garden M. M., but before the next meeting, 9-7-1726, David was deceased, but his widow, being removed, a certificate was granted for her. She was disowned by New Garden M. M., 6-29-1730, having married a second husband, Thomas McCollum. She was a member of Sadsbury Meeting at time of second marriage.

Administration on estate of David Moore, probably granted in Philadelphia, at Orphans' Court, 10-9-1730, Thomas West and (1) Andrew Moore petitioned in behalf of the children of David Moore, representing that he died intestate, and letters were granted Mary Moore, the widow, now intermarried with one Thomas McCollum, and the estate likely to be embezzled. West and Andrew Moore were sureties for administrator. The Court appointed Andrew Moore, of Sadsbury, Thomas West, of Concord, and Caleb Pierce, of Sadsbury, guardians for the children, James, William, John and Francis.

4-8-1730, on petition of Andrew Moore and Thomas West, two of the guardians, Court allows Thomas McCollum and wife 18 £ for four years' diet, etc., of the children. They also write they have purchased from McCollum and wife, her right of dower in the estate of David Moore, which is approved.

2-12-1739-40, the guardians write that the eldest son, James, is of age, and has agreed with them for the shares of the younger children in their father's estate, at 160£. Approved, together with their accounts of guardianship. These last accounts are filed in Register's office, West Chester, Pa.

The widow's account represents that she was the executrix of the will of David Moore, late of Sadsbury, the inventory amounting to 285£. She signs her name "Mearey Moore."

5-26-1730, in the guardians' account, it is stated "I do hereby acknowledge to have received of my uncle, Andrew Moore, this 12-12-1739-40, the sum of 91£ 8s. 8d., being ye full and compleat share belonging to me as eldest son, from ye estate of my father. I say received by me, James Moore." The shares of the other children were 45£ 14s. 4d. each.

Second Generation.

Children of DAVID and MARY (——) MOORE.

JAMES, b. ——.

WILLIAM, b. ——.

JOHN, b. ——, m. 4-17-1747, at London Grove F. M. H., Rachel, dau. of Joseph Hayes, of East Marlboro, Chester County, Pennsylvania. John at this time resided in West Caln, Chester County, Pennsylvania. Rachel died.

John m. 2d time, 4-13-1749, Hannah Hollingsworth, of Birmingham, Chester County, Pa., at Center Meeting.

When John Moore and Hannah Hollingsworth passed meeting, John brought his mother's consent, which seemed to indicate his father was not living. She did not sign his certificate, but William James, another William Moore, Jane, Isaac and Abigail Hayes and Hannah Moore signed amongst near relatives. John's grandson, the late Joseph Moore, of Union Bridge, Carroll County, Maryland, writes that "soon after John's 2d marriage, he removed to Baltimore, Maryland, where he was extensively engaged in the milling business, in partnership with William Moore, who,

I presume, was his brother." He was thus engaged as late as the year 1765. John took a certificate from Sadsbury, Pa., M. M., to Newark (Kennett) M. M. He was afterwards disowned for quarrelling with Isaac Mendenhall, about a line between them.

In 1763, John brought a recommendation from friends in Baltimore, offered an acknowledgment, and secured a certificate to Gunpowder, Md., M. M.

3-28-1764, John Moore produced at Gunpowder, M. M. a certificate from Kennett M. M. for himself and children, David, John, Jehu, Mary and Abigail. Prior to this, his wife, Hannah, had died.

At the same Meeting, 3-28-1764, John Moore and Rebecca Price handed in their intentions of marriage.

5-26-1773, John Moore and wife, Rebecca, obtained a certificate for themselves and children, John, Jehu, Mary, Hannah and Francis, to Pipe Creek M. M.

By examining old deeds, it is shown that at the time John Moore lived in Baltimore, he owned land where the depot of the Northern Central railroad now stands, and Hillen Station, of the Western Maryland railroad.

He then went to Winchester, Va., where he was engaged in farming and merchandising during the rest of his life, dying in 1784, and was buried near Westminster, Maryland, leaving quite a large estate, which was heavily encumbered.

The author has examined John Moore's will at Frederick, Maryland. He mentions "Son Jehu Moore," to whom he leaves his farm near Westminster, then Frederick, now Carroll county, Maryland. Also, Jehu to pay his brother William 100£ in hard money; desires his beloved wife, Rebecca, and son, Jehu, to remain on the homestead until his minor children are of age, she, Rebecca, to do her share in bringing up said children; mentions "house and lots in Baltimore town," also daughters Mary and Abigail; mentions his five youngest children, Thomas, Hannah, Frances, William and Keturah; mentions also son Enoch; says son David shall have no portion of his estate, as he already had his full share. Son Jehu Moore and John Brown are named as executors. The will is dated 12-29-1780, probated 10-17-1784.

(No children 1st marriage.)

11-22-1784, Rebecca gives up her claim to the bequests named in said will, and took in lieu thereof her dower of one-third part of the entire estate.

FRANCIS, b. —.

Third Generation.

Children of JOHN and HANNAH (HOLLINGSWORTH)
MOORE.

DAVID, b. 1-27-1750. 4-28-1773, David was disowned from Meeting for misconduct. Scharf's History of Western Maryland, Volume I, page 127, shows that David Moore bore an active and laborious part in collecting money for the relief of the Boston sufferers by the Port Bill during the Revolution, etc. He went to Virginia, near Petersburg. The author has been unable to find whom David married.

JOANNA, b. 7-9-1751, d. young.

ENOCH, b. 5-22-1753; served in the war of the Revolution. As an illustration of the dry humor of Enoch, the following anecdote is given: "An effort was being made to establish a landmark which had been by a fence line, long removed, and the date of it no one seemed able to fix. An old man was put upon the witness stand. He said he remembered very well that such a fence had at one time been there, and he could give one sure date. Soon after the battle of 'Brandywine' Enoch and John Moore were brought home to be nursed, and he went to pay them a visit, and on his way climbed over this fence in question; and when he went in to see the boys, he said: 'Well, Enoch, what did you do with the British?' 'We whipped them, and drove them into Philadelphia,' was the ready reply." Enoch was a millwright by trade, and went to Virginia with William Winchester, after whom the town of Winchester is named. He selected a mill site, but was accidentally wounded by the Indians in his right hand, which made him unable to follow his trade. He never married, but spent the remainder of his life with his brother Jehu, where he died, 3-14-1822.

JOHN, b. 12-11-1755, d. during or soon after the Revolutionary War, and is buried beside his father near Westminster, Maryland. The author has no record of John ever having married.

JEHU, b. 10-8-1757, m. 3-23-1796, Hannah, daughter of Joseph and Jane Hibberd, at Pipe Creek Friends' Meeting House.

Jehu spent his younger days near Westminster, Maryland, assisting his father in his business. In 1794, he went into partnership with Solomon Shepherd in the mercantile business at Pipe Creek, near what is now Union Bridge. This partnership existed for a few years, when Jehu went into the business himself, until 1808, when he bought a farm, where he resided until the time of his death, 12-11-1841.

Jehu was much interested in educational matters, and gave his children the best opportunities the schools of that day afforded. He was very steadfast in what he believed to be the doctrine of truth. He left quite a comfortable estate, but as his son remarked: "He leaves what is far more precious, a good name."

MARY, b. 3-22-1759, m. Mahlon Stevenson, and soon after removed to the State of Indiana.

Children of JOHN and REBECCA (PRICE) MOORE.

THOMAS, b. —. Went West with the Stevensons.

HANNAH, b. —, m. — Headington, and resided in Baltimore, Md. After her husband's death she lived at Jehu Moore's, her half-brother, until her decease, 8-26-1833. No children.

HOW TO TRACE BACK A LINE OF DESCENT.

SUPPOSE Helen A. Passmore wishes to know how she is descended from (1) Andrew Moore. She will first look in the Index and find her number is 12769. She will see that her father's number is 6911; that he was the son of Samuel W. Passmore, whose number is 2129. Turning back to this last number, she will see that he was the son of Andrew M. Passmore, whose number is 499. Turning to this number, she will find he was the son of Ruth Moore, whose number is 115. Turning to this number, she will see that Ruth was the daughter of Andrew Moore, No. 16; and tracing this number back, she will find he was the son of Andrew Moore, No. 1, the emigrant. She will thus see she is eighth in descent from Andrew Moore, the emigrant, and tenth from John Moore, who emigrated from Scotland in 1612.

INDEX.

THE Index is limited to the lineal descendants of (1) Andrew Moore. Maiden or married names, as the case may be, are enclosed in parentheses (). Where information was received after the name was passed in press, it is given in the Addenda, and descendants there noted for the first time are given under a new series of numbers, which are distinguished here by prefixing a to the number. Where the Addenda furnishes additional information concerning descendants of (1) Andrew, it is indicated by (see Add.) prefixed to regular number.
